09.35 How Big Prawn Landed Impressive Category Growth By Casting A Line Into Consumer Data

Claire Evans, Category Manager at The Big Prawn Co. joins Chris Dingley, Head of Customer Success at Attest to talk about how they’re harnessing consumer data to understand more about where their product fits in the market, and what consumers want to see the brand produce next. In addition to a deep dive on four research projects and their business outcomes, exclusive new research on the factors that most influence people to try a new product will be shared - giving you clarity on what to focus on to win in your category in 2022.
